"Building Community"

Scout Plans Gazebo for Rochester

By Kenneth J. Souza

Despite its already-quiet rural look, Rochester "life scout" David Santos recently decided the town's center could benefit from the addition of a New England style gazebo, much like Mattapoisett's famous landmark in Shipyard Park. The Troop 31 member has since been working to parlay this idea into a community service to earn his Eagle Scout rank with the organization.

Working closely with Scoutmaster Ray Lawrence and Librarian Lucy Van Petten, Mr. Santos began a drive to raise $5,000 to purchase a prefabricated gazebo made of pressure-treated wood which would be installed either on the town common in front of the Plumb Memorial Library, or directly behind the facility for use during summer reading programs.

"I thought it could be located in front of the library," Mr. Santos said. "But there are a lot of events during the summer where they set up tents and tables ... (Ms. Van Petten) suggested the gazebo be located behind the library, so the kids could use it as part of their summer reading program."

As such, Mr. Santos has set a goal of July or August to install the structure so the library can begin using the gazebo this summer. He will be overseeing the other scouts in Troop 31 in assisting with construction and landscaping around the gazebo.

"The (Rochester) gazebo will be a little more elaborate than this," Mr. Santos said, referring to the sample photograph which has been included with flyers that were distributed in town. "But it will be a similar design."

The enterprising scout and student at Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School added that anyone who donates to the project will receive a "Certificate of Appreciation," and those who donate $100 or more can have their company, group, personal name, or name of a departed loved one memorialized on a plaque that will be attached to the gazebo. He is also hoping that area businesses — which he hasn't yet solicited — will support the project.

"I've already sent out a letter to (Rochester) residents ... we'll be going around to town businesses this month," he said.

Mr. Santos' initial efforts have already yielded $2,500 in donations to date. He hopes to raise the remainder of his $5,000 goal within the next few weeks. He has already ordered a gazebo unit and used the $2,500 as a down payment. With any luck, and the generosity of Rochester residents, Mr. Santos hopes to have the remaining funds in hand by the time the gazebo is delivered in late July or August.

Tax-deductible donations in any amount may be left at the Plumb Memorial Library, or mailed to: Troop 31 - Library Eagle Project, c/o David P. Santos, 258 Braley Hill Road, Rochester, MA 02770.

Mattapoisett Raffle

Lions Club Harbor Days Fundraiser

Members of the Mattapoisett Lions Club will soon be soliciting area residents to purchase raffle tickets for a lavish painting created and donated by artist Arthur Moniz to help raise money as part of this year's Annual Harbor Days Festival in July. The colorful painting, titled "Fall - Old Arch Bridge - Mattapoisett," depicts the bridge over the Mattapoisett River (also known as "Lover's Bridge").

The raffle drawing will be held on the final day of Harbor Days weekend, Sunday, July 19. Tickets are $1 each or a book of three for $2. Tickets will be on sale at the Ropewalk on weekends, and also may be obtained from any member of the Mattapoisett Lions Club.

1998 ORR High School Commencement

One-hundred and forty-three graduates from the Class of 1998 at Old Rochester Regional High School received their diplomas during Commencement Exercises held on Saturday, June 6. Highlights of the proceedings included a welcome address from Class President Elizabeth R. Southworth, the introduction of the valedictorian by National Honor Society President Sara K.

On the cover: David Santos, a "life scout" with Rochester Boy Scout Troop 31, is seeking donations from town residents to install a gazebo in the town center near the library. Mr. Santos has already managed to raise $2,500 of his $5,000 goal, and is spearheading the project to earn the rank of Eagle Scout. (Photo by Kenneth J. Souza).

Cover insert: Arthur Moniz's painting of the Arch Bridge over the Mattapoisett River is being raffled off by the Mattapoisett Lions Club as a fundraiser for this year's Harbor Days Festival. Raffle tickets may be purchased for $1 each, or a book of 3 for $2, and will be available at The Ropewalk during weekends prior to the festival and from any Lions Club member. The drawing will be held on Sunday, July 19.

Rochester Selectmen's Meeting

June 8, 1998

By Kenneth J. Souza

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, June 8 at 6:30 pm by Chairman Richard D. Cutler. Also present was Selectman Naida L. Parker and Executive Secretary Russell Dean.

The board first voted to unanimously approve the minutes of their June 1 meeting and also considered a request from Peter Ferri to release two lots from the Chapter 61A restriction. "(Mr. Ferri) has brought this to us before," Chairman Cutler said. "I still don't think we're interested in the property." With that, the board unanimously voted to grant Mr. Ferri's request.

Selectmen then reviewed the proposed warrant for the June 29 Special Town Meeting. Selectman Parker noted that the warrant needed to be posted by June 15 to meet the required deadline. In addition to the three articles already submitted, there may be an article to establish a revolving fund account for the Plumb Memorial Library, and an article by petition to discontinue a portion of Old Neck Road as a public way.

"A portion of (Old Neck Road) was specifically excluded because it falls under the county layout,"

Selectman Parker said. "We should find out if this will affect the current layout (before going to Town Meeting)."

The other articles to be included on the warrant will ask voters to approve $4,000 to cover additional trash pickup fees for fiscal year 1998-1999 (ARTICLE 1); accept the local practice of hiring Reserve Police Officers as dictated by state law (ARTICLE 2); and approve an undetermined amount of money (possibly $5,000) to cover additional engineering funds to acquire land adjacent to the Rochester Memorial School (ARTICLE 3).

At 6:45 pm the board met with Gordon Champion of the state Department of Telecommunications and Energy (DTE, formerly the DPU) to discuss the town's forthcoming contract renewal options with MediaOne for cable television service. Members of the Cable Advisory Committee were also on hand for the presentation.

According to Mr. Champion, Rochester is slated to begin contract negotiations with MediaOne very shortly, with the existing contract set to expire in April of 2001. Since the process is somewhat involved, however, he recommends that the town begin taking the preliminary steps soon. "You fall within the federally-recommended three-year window (for negotiations)," he said, adding that MediaOne should be sending the town a letter very soon. This letter, in fact, had already been received by members of the Cable Advisory Committee.

"There is a presumption of renewal for all cable companies," Mr. Champion said. "You should also know that all cable contracts are capped at 10 years ... but you can agree to only 7, or 5 years."

Part of the process includes scheduling a Public Hearing so residents can offer their input on existing cable service (this hearing needs to be well-publicized), and also issuing a survey to cable subscribers to determine their level of satisfaction with current cable offerings. Then, the Cable Advisory Committee, acting as representatives for the Board of Selectmen, needs to submit a Request for Proposals (RFP) to MediaOne, offering a "wish list" of what they'd like to see added to the next contract agreement.

Mr. Champion even suggested that MediaOne might be willing to include the survey with monthly

Lastly, Robert Cummings submitted a letter expressing interest in serving on the Planning Board. With over 22 years' worth of experience in Civil Engineering, the board felt he would be an ideal candidate for the Planning Board. The board agreed to hold this matter until next week's meeting so they could consult the other Planning Board members.

In other matters, the board:

- Agreed to begin "preliminary negotiations" with the Rochester Police Brotherhood on July 13 at 6:30 pm for the union's next three-year contract. Chairman Cutler was concerned that the Brotherhood was under the false impression that they would be reopening the existing contract. "I think we're better off negotiating the new contract," he said. "I don't want to reopen the existing contract ... it's essentially done."

- Agreed to continue working on getting houses along Route 105 properly numbered for the E-911 system and to contact Wareham regarding this matter. "We need to let them know we're working on it, but it isn't going as fast as we'd like," he said.

- Asked Mr. Dean to check into the progress of proposed legislation from Senator Marc Pacheco to designate Route 105 in Rochester as a "scenic highway." Chairman Cutler noted that this designation would allow the town to have some input in any future changes made on the state highway. "(The state) can do what they want

• Voted to ask the Police Department to monitor truck traffic and speed along Walnut Plain Road due to recent resident complaints. Selectman Parker noted that she has had difficulty maneuvering past large hauling trucks traveling too fast in the opposite direction along that road.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 8:45 pm.

MAKE EXTERNAL APPEARANCE COUNT

The external appearance of your home has an important impact on potential buyers. You will never get a prospect interested in buying unless he stops to look. Don't rely on the inside of your home "selling" it. Your prospect may be "turned off" before he reaches the front door. So, look at the exterior with a critical eye.

Give the house a fresh coat of paint if needed. Replace any broken or cracked windows. Replace loose shingles. Fix the fence. Keep the lawn mowed and the shrubs trimmed to give your house that "well-cared-for" look. Make sure that your screen or storm door is in top shape and your front door is inviting with a fresh coat of paint or varnish. It is not uncommon to see a hundred dollars worth of improvements and some elbow grease increase the value of a house over a thousand dollars.

Put yourself in the buyer's shoes. He is looking for charm, comfort, location and a bargain. Give him the best show for the money.

Trophies will be awarded for the first place overall winner (male and female), the first three finishers in each division, along with a runners' raffle for merchandise awards (all runners are eligible and must be present to claim their prize).

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

On Tuesday, June 16, voters in Mattapoisett will be asked to vote on several Proposition 2 1/2 overrides as approved by the Annual Town Meeting. These represent very serious and important decisions concerning the quality of life that we, as citizens, wish to contribute to the immediate and far-reaching future for our children and ourselves.

I would like to urge all voters to approve the funds for the future of the Mattapoisett Free Public Library. The need is urgent! The present building is not handicap-accessible, is structurally aging, and is inadequate for the space and technological requirements of a modern library.

Great philanthropists of the past realized the importance of providing free access for all citizens to the knowledge of the world. We are being asked to further their ideals as we approach a new century.

Sincerely,
Eletha M. Yeaton
Mattapoisett

To the Editor:

The members of the (Mattapoisett) Council on Aging wish me to extend to the Board of Directors and members of the Friends of the Elderly a sincere "thank you" for all you do for the seniors in Mattapoisett. We recognize and appreciate the time and effort so many of you contribute toward the various fundraising projects held each year.

Over the past year you have been generous in providing the Senior Center with a large television, beautifully decorated cabinet, a VCR and now a microphone system, we are

Animal Advice

Jay Gould, DVM

INSECT BITES

My dog came inside from his run with a number of 1/2 inch red marks on his belly that were shaped like bullseyes. Are these from deer tick bites? Does it mean that he will get Lyme Disease?

Because of the mild winter, this spring has been especially bad for black flies and biting gnats. These are small flies that circle your head in the morning and evening. When they bite a dog, usually on the belly and ears where the hair is thin, they leave a characteristic bullseye shaped mark.

Is there a way to prevent him from being attacked by these flies?

Try putting Avon Skin So Soft in the areas that have a thin hair cover. Other insects repellents contain DEET may not be safe on your dog. Use them very sparingly, as on the ears only.

described as a modern romantic comedy about a marriage and a dog. The New York Times stated, "Dramatic literature is stuffed with memorable love scenes, but none is as immediately delicious and dizzy as the one that begins the redeeming affair in A. R. Gurney's new comedy." The New York Daily News critic called it "one of the most involving, beautiful, funny, touching, and profound plays I have ever seen."

The plot revolves around Greg (played by Ted Babbitt III) and Kate (played by Anne Schenck), a couple who have been married for 22 years. The kids are gone, Greg's career is winding down, Kate's career is beginning to take off after all those years of raising children. Then Greg brings home a dog (played by Marcia Pereira) he found in the park — a lab/poodle mix of street-smart energy with the name tag "Sylvia." She offers Greg an escape from the frustrations of job and the unknowns of middle age. She becomes a rival to Kate. Sylvia thinks Kate simply doesn't understand the relationship between man and dog.

Director Paul Sardinha definitely does understand this classic relationship and uses his professional knowledge of theater and of dogs (through his day job as a technician at New England Animal Hospital) to coach the actors in this endearing piece. There are three amusing characters in supporting roles played by Jim Carr, Linda Monchik, and Mimi Allen. Without revealing too much of the plot, another paper simply described "Sylvia" as "howlingly funny!"

The Marion Art Center will set up some tables, cabaret-style, but there will also be individual seating. Tables may be reserved in parties of four or more. The play will run two weekends and will be staged on June 18, June 19, June 20, June 25, June 26, and June 27 (not June 11-13 as previously announced). Curtain time for all shows is 8:00 pm. Refreshments will be available. Reservations are now being accepted and tickets are $10 for MAC members and $12.50 for general admission. The Art Center is air-conditioned. Space is limited, so please call 748-1266 to make reservations.

Fairhaven, is the scene of the next Office of Tourism Walking Tour scheduled for Saturday, June 13 at 2:00 pm. The tour begins at the Old Stone Schoolhouse on the corner of North Street and Castle Avenue. Tourism Director Christopher J. Richard will act as guide.

Originally known as Oxford Village, the Poverty Point area still has more than a dozen homes dating to the 1700's. Many stories of the neighborhood's rich history will be told during the tour, including tales of Captain William Whitfield and Manjiro Nakahama, Mayflower passenger John Cooke, founder of the Seventh Day Adventists Joseph Bates Jr., and Joshua Slocum, the first man to sail around the world alone.

At the start of the tour, the public will get an opportunity to see the interior of the Old Stone Schoolhouse, which was the first public school in Fairhaven built in 1828. The walking tour will last about an hour and a half. There is no charge.

To get to the Old Stone Schoolhouse, traveling north on Main Street from Route 6, turn right at North Street and proceed one block.

The Mattapoisett PTA calls upon all our residents to support the Elementary School Budget on Ballot Question #1 at the Special Town Election on Tuesday June 16th. The quality of our children's education is in jeopardy!

Although the Town has provided our local budget with increases, student enrollment has risen, and over the last two years the cost of supplies has risen. In addition, over the last two years the cost of state mandated programs has increased close to 50%. The local school budget is responsible for providing all state mandated programs from kindergarten through twelfth grade.

The budget as it now stands, has been slashed to the bare minimum. Everyday school supplies and textbooks will be limited! FAILURE TO PASS THE OVERRIDE WILL BE DISASTROUS!

The Mattapoisett PTA also supports questions #2, #3 and #8 for the following reasons:

1. Because Marion and Rochester have already approved these override expenditures and Mattapoisett will have to pay our share.

2. If not passed then all our town budgets, including our school budget would be cut to meet our town's share!

Please vote on Tuesday June 16th at Old Hammondtown School. The polls will be open from 10am until 8pm.

Please prevent classroom overcrowding, loss of essential staff and loss of programs! Uphold our property values (a excellent school system attracts homebuyers), and keep the quality education that exists in Mattapoisett now!

MOVIE REVIEW

Cable Guy

BY ROB GONSALVES
local@wanderer.com

■ The Truman Show. Starring Jim Carrey, Laura Linney, and Ed Harris. Directed by Peter Weir. Running time: 110 minutes. MPAA rating: PG. At Cinema 12 at the North Dartmouth Mall.

Why do millions of people watch the happy-go-lucky and rather routine daily activities of Truman Burbank (Jim Carrey)? In The Truman Show, an intelligent, sometimes powerful, but ultimately disappointing fable, people sit glued to their TVs 24 hours a day, watching Truman move cheerfully through his sunshiny hometown Seahaven on his way to work. Some of the viewers, we're told, find his humdrum life soothing — he's living the ideal, conflict-free life. Others, I imagine, are waiting for the moment when he discovers what everyone else in the world knows — that he's living inside a perpetual TV show, "on the air unaware."

The Truman Show, directed by Peter Weir (Dead Poets Society) from a script by Andrew Niccol (who wrote and directed the superior Gattaca last year), takes a rather ugly view of American voyeurism. There they are — there we are — staring at this poor sap going through his paces. The movie is a metaphor for any number of media evils (it has its spiritual side, too), but it only occasionally probes what it might actually be like to find out that your entire life has been faked — or what it's like to be one of those actors hired to play Truman's wife or best friend. Weir and Niccol haven't really imagined or gotten inside their characters. The film is a skilled and elegant blank, and it doesn't end up saying much of anything.

Jim Carrey tries hard — his trying hard registers as conscious restraint, trying not to be wacky — and his performance isn't bad, but it isn't entirely successful, either. At times, he reminded me of Robin Williams working overtime to achieve sad-clown pathos; it may be a few years before Carrey can simply relax and be a normal Earthling, as Williams did in Dead Poets Society or Good Will Hunting. I suppose my basic complaint may sound ungrateful:

Carrey isn't very funny here — he doesn't find humor in Truman beyond the "Good morning! And if I don't see ya, good afternoon and good evening!" shtick we've seen in the ads.

Seahaven is actually a gigantic studio set, run by a Godlike director named Christof (Ed Harris); he's literally the man in the moon — Seahaven's faux moon is his headquarters. Harris is impressive in his intense, bullheaded way, as usual — but what, if anything, does Christof feel about Truman, his greatest creation? And what about the actress who plays Meryl, Truman's wife? Laura Linney, in a terrific Chinese-box performance (playing an actress playing Meryl), shows glimmers of the real woman under the façade, but the script doesn't help her. Does she have a life outside Seahaven? Perhaps even another man? All of these things might have been suggested, painted with delicate strokes and putting small holes in Truman's illusion, instead of the broad hints he gets (a studio light falling from the sky, etc.).

The Truman Show gets to you occasionally, when it triggers common paranoia and plays on our fleeting thoughts that everything around us has been conspiratorially staged. But it's amorphous; it can be interpreted any number of ways — for a while, I read it as the interior dissolution of a paranoid schizophrenic who has delusions of grandeur and finally hears the voice of God (Christof) in his head. The movie could be that, or it could be a statement about the decrease of privacy or the increase in isolation — and, of course, the media is to blame for it all. But "the media" is a meaningless straw man if you don't also indict its audience — and, in the end, we're let off the hook. The voyeurs become Truman's ardent supporters, rooting for him to break out of the same false reality they've been watching for thirty years.

The Truman Show isn't meant to be taken literally, and it may appeal, like Forrest Gump, to softhearted idealists. But some of us may go out wishing for something meatier, edgier. Everyone in the movie seems as confined as Truman, and the gifted filmmakers seem as distant as Christof — looking down on us from the moon and dropping comforting pieties.

This Week's Horoscope

by Linda Black

Aries (March 21-April 19). Long-distance interests conflict with obligations closer to home. Since money is tight, perhaps you can do the travel electronically.

Taurus (April 20-May 20). Don't take a financial risk. Don't make a loan to a flaky friend either. You could pool money with a friend to travel, however.

Gemini (May 21-June 21). Looks like you'll be stirred into action. If you have the facts at your fingertips you'll be able to overcome the opposition, but it's a tough fight.

Cancer (June 22-July 22). Concentrate on work. There's more coming in every minute. Use secret information you receive to complete a project.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22). You'll be so busy falling in love you may not have time for anything else. Unfortunately, there are a couple of other things on your schedule.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Confusion reigns. Keep track of the changes or you'll wind up in the wrong place at the wrong time. You'll be very lucky in love.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). You're smart and that's good. Stick close to home. Although you'd like to travel, you'd better wait.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Your shopping expedition should go well. Don't go too far into debt. You still have to pay it off, remember?

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). You're under increasing pressure to settle down to work. It'll be impossible to ignore the stuff that's stacking up, especially if you need that paycheck.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). You work hard to keep up with a demanding schedule. Don't worry. You're looking very good.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Friends and lovers take up all your attention. You're under pressure, probably of your own making. You'll have to hit it hard to keep up with the pack.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20). Confusion is everywhere so don't feel bad if you get some on you. If you just figure it out intuitively, you have a better chance of understanding.

If You're Having a Birthday This Week: You'll learn how to work with a partner this year, possibly out of necessity.

Mattapoisett Police Receive Grant

Mattapoisett Police Chief James F. Moran announced this week that his department has received a $2,000 grant from the Law Enforcement Advisory Board (LEAB). Chief Moran will use the money to put police officers out on bicycles in the center of town, wharf area, and for special occasions. Chief Moran said that with the help of Sheriff Peter Forman, he will be able to continue to mix police and community and have a good rapport with the citizens of Mattapoisett.

Plymouth County Sheriff Peter Forman noted this is the second year of LEAB funding. In all, 21 Plymouth County Police Departments and the State Police Barracks in Bourne will receive awards, ranging from $1,500 to $10,000. They will share a total of $70,045, with an additional $13,500 to be held in reserve for other requests that may arise during the fiscal year which begins in July and ends next June.

"The LEAB's mission is to assist local departments, especially with programs or initiatives that the chiefs want but don't have the money for," Sheriff Forman said. "We gave particular attention to requests that were innovative or that had the potential to be adopted in neighboring communities."
